

GRADUATION CEREMONY OF CLASS XII HELD WITH RESPLENDENCE

With a cast of more than 400 graduates and guests, the Graduation Ceremony of Delhi Public School Bhopal, that was held on 20th January 2014, was a truly momentous occasion. The day marked an extraordinary day for all concerned. Mr. Ajay K. Sharma, Principal, DPS extended a warm welcome to the dignitaries and advised the students to use their human qualities to face the challenges of life and emerge victorious in every field.

The evening began with the Ceremonial March Past with students and their teachers clad in graduation gowns and caps. The parents of the students were present to encourage their wards and witness the grand spectacle. The event included lighting the lamps of knowledge and illuminating the school logo by the students with a promise to be the true torchbearers of their alma-mater. The students also sought the blessings of the guests and teachers.

In his address to students, Pro Vice Chairman, Mr. Hari Mohan Gupta encouraged the students to spread their wings and scale newer horizons and take the flag of DPS higher. Mr. Nasiruddin, Secretary, JSWS, Mr. Abhishek Mohan Gupta, Director Marketing and Strategic Planning and Development, Mr. Alok Kumar Saxena, Executive Director, JSWS, Mr. Nitin Ambaselkar, CAO, DPS Bhopal-Indore and Treasure, JSWS and other guests encouraged the students by their benign presence.

The ceremony concluded with everyone congratulating the graduates for a splendid and blissful future. The occasion was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for the student that they will never forget.
