

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL BHOPAL

PRESS RELEASE

A school provides a platform where a child can develop into a responsible and independent person with a harmonious personality. Keeping that in mind a three day Day-Night Camp for the children of Class-III was organized in the DPS campus from March 7th to March, 9th.

The enthusiastic children arrived in the school on March 7th, all eager to spend a wonderful time together. The evening began with an interactive session between teachers and students, which was followed by a puppet and magic show by Mr. Raju Bhatt. Then there was a movie show organized exclusively for the children.

The fun-filled second day witnessed various art and craft and sports activities especially designed by art & craft and physical education departments. The purpose of this workshop was to promote creativity and imaginative skills among children and encourage innovative ideas in them. Children were also taken to BHEL Park, where they enjoyed various outdoor games. Later in the evening, a short cultural programme on the theme 'Nature' was organized by the children. The Chief Guests of the evening were Mr. Ajay K. Sharma, the Principal and Mrs. Vinita Malik, Headmistress, DPS Bhopal. The programme was well attended by Academic coordinators and teachers. The evening began with the formal lighting of lamp. Then the children presented a beautiful dance performance worshipping Lord Ganesha followed by a melodious song. Then a beautiful play 'Naturaliza', depicting the importance of nature, enthralled the students. The fashion show 'Rainbow at its Best' by the little ones, attired in rainbow coloured clothes was appreciated by one and all. Mr. Ajay K. Sharma in his address congratulated everyone on the success of the camp. He also said that such activities not only make children more confident and responsible, but also enable them to become accommodative and self-dependent. The children also engaged in camp fire accompanied with music and dance.

On the final day i.e. March 9th the children were rewarded with tokens of love and appreciation as gifts were distributed to them. They went back home with their parents, cherishing the sweet memories of the time spent with teachers and friends.
